Five deaths and five new cases of yellow fever are reported at Brewton, Ala.

A new town in Nebraska is called "Baseball." Westward the course of Umpire takes its way.

A St. Paul paper says that a string of pearls is now the fashionable dress for young ladies. Heretofore we had supposed that the climate of Minnesota was quite cool. It seems we were mistaken.

It is reported that the Saloon-keepers' Association of Chicago, has compromised suits brought by Sabbatarians, by agreeing that saloons shall be closed on Sunday. It is thought good faith will be observed.

It is reported from Washington that Senator Ben Harrison and his friends will endeavor to have General Gresham nominated for Governor of Indiana in order to remove him from the former's Presidential path.

At a meeting of three thousand Irish-Americans in Chicago, resolutions were adopted declaring that it is the duty of the U. S. Government to use its power to secure a fair trial for O'Donnell, the slayer of Informer Carey.

GOVERNOR BUTLER accepts the nomination for Governor by the Greenbackers, and tells them they have practically won their cause, as the silver certificates, postal notes, etc., are paper currency based on the Nation's good faith.

LARGE numbers of Chinese are permitted to land at San Francisco on certificates from the Chinese Government that they are traders, a class the treaty admits. The hearers of these certificates are declared to be ignorant laborers.

According to the census statistics, the grand total of the wealth of the United States is $50,000,000,000, or about $1,000 for each inhabitant. Nevertheless we shall hold on to what we've got, as it rightfully belongs to us. Vanderbilt and Gould can do as they please.

The U. S. Supreme Court has found the Civil Rights Bill unconstitutional. The court stood eight to one, Justice Harlan alone dissenting. The court holds that the law stands in the District of Columbia and the territories, but denies its constitutionality as to the States.

A DISPATCH from Lexington to the Cincinnati Evening Post says: "It is now believed that the whole story connected with the Ashland horror will soon be brought to light. George Ellis, Wm. Neal, and Ellis Craft were probably the dupes of another man, and he wealthy, of Boyd county. Your reporter has seen a certain note of hand given in 1881 by George Ellis to this rich person, the note bearing several credits and a receipt in full. That this is a valuable link in the circumstances surrounding the murder is most probably true, because Ellis was a poor old man, and could not have borrowed $200 from any one man at a time, unless he gave good security, and there is no evidence of such on the note. Light is again breaking on the tragedy, and I believe the mystery will soon be cleared up entirely."

Enchanting Females.

The Pulaski county (Va.) fair offers a prize for the prettiest girl, and another for the best young lady rider.

One of the St. Louis schools for young ladies has established a class in osculation, so that the damsels can give General Sherman a proper reception when he takes up his residence there.

A Detroit coal dealer says housekeepers wait until they are entirely out of fuel, and then, somehow, they all manage to come on the same day and want a load sent right up quick, as there is not enough in the cellar to get the next meal.

Several ghosts have recently appeared in Chicago, and the ministers of that place find it impossible to convince their congregations that there are no marriages in heaven. Chicago people believe that all ghosts that appear there are unhappy spirits who have come back seeking a divorce.

"How do you punish your daughter when she is disobedient?" asked a dominie of the dairyman. "Oh, I apply a practical punishment, by which she gains experience, and I acquire wealth." "Why, what on earth do you do?" "What do I do? Why, I make her milk twelve cows before breakfast, sir; that's what I do."

Little Eva Britton, a delicate creature, remarkable for her insolence and dirty finger nails, who has been going about the country for several years soliciting subscribers for a monthly paper called the Hurricane, published at Charleston, S. C., has finally involved herself in a tempest. She has been arrested in New Orleans as a swindler. She has obtained in the Union 30,000 subscribers, at fifty cents each, for a paper that has no existence.

Considerably Curious.

Two quarrymen report finding in a cave in a quarry at Caperton, Va., an old iron chest containing coins and tools apparently of some ancient race.

A citizen of Memphis, who died recently, had two policies on his life which his family could not find. One night a friend of the deceased had a dream in which he saw the lost policies. On waking he went for the documents and found them.

A large river, hitherto unknown to geographers, has been discovered in Alaska. The Indians say it is more than fifteen hundred miles to its source, and that in places it is twenty miles wide. Flowers were found growing upon its banks in August, within the Arctic circle.

A Berlin lady of some property, sent letters to all her relatives, inviting them to come and see her "on an important family matter." They came in expectation and in troops, and were received at the station by her two sons. On arriving at the house it was discovered that the good dame had taken the opportunity of hanging herself, and had left behind her nothing but numerous invitations to her funeral.

A French medical journal has been amusing itself by prescribing for the ailments of illustrious people who have died as early they did. Moliere could have been saved by a few grains of caffeine. Racine's neurosis would have yielded to bromide of potassium; while any modern doctor could have cured Napoleon of his biliousness, and altered the course of history by making the great Emperor live to green old age.

Of the madstone, which, in the West, is popularly believed to insure its possessor against hydrophobia and death by snake bite, the Torre Haute Express says: "Madstones are very rare, and very few are known to exist. There is one in Des Moines, one in Keokuk, one in Louisville and one in Taylorville, Ill. Many people doubt the stone's existence. Where the madstones come from no one seems to know. Their possessors are not able to tell. An old Indian chief said that the stones were found in the stomachs of extremely old buck deers. The stone is porous, and when it is applied to a wound the virus passes through it into the bandages."

An Old Skipper's Conversion.

St. Louis Times.

A boat spent several days aground, and all attempts at getting her afloat proved futile. The boat's bow rested on the bar, but the stern was in deep water. After breaking all the spars and lines the crew became exhausted, and gave up in despair. The old skipper was in a fix. To remain in that unpleasant position would result in great loss. Something must be done. He paced the decks in deep meditation for some minutes, when a thought struck him. A camp meeting was being held on the bank of the river, a few miles distant. He dispatched several of his crew in a yawl, with orders to inform the leaders of the meeting that he had got religion, and wanted them to come and pray for him. The news that this wicked old boatman—as he was called—had got religion flew through the camp like lightning, and all repaired to the boat. As they came on board, on the stages, which, in the meantime, had been rigged to the bluff-bar, the captain stood on the fore-castle, and greeting each with a smile, said, "Back aft, gentlemen, the meeting back aft." Presently the extra weight on the stern caused the boat to swing clear, when the captain rushed back, and yelled, "The meeting is over, gentlemen, the meeting is over! Damn it! get ashore."

When the good Lord up above
Sends you leaves and fishes,
No need there is to go abroad
To get your pans and dishes.
And this, my friend, please take to heart,
And set it down as true,
When you ignore your friends at home,
They'll do the same to you.

PLEASE to bear in mind that Maysville now has a stove factory.

The remains of Rev. Father Rice, who established Presbyterianism in this State an hundred years ago, at Harrodsburg Station, are buried in Green county. The two synods have resolved to remove them to Danville and erect a suitable monument to his memory.

Many forget that the hair and scalp need cleansing as well as the hands and feet. Extensive use of Ayer's Hair Vigor has proven that it is the best cleansing agent for the hair—that it prevents as well as removes dandruff, cools and soothes the scalp, and stimulates the hair to renewed growth and beauty.

A peculiar virtue in Ayer's Sarsaparilla is that while it cleanses and purges the blood from all corruptions and impurities, and thereby roots out all diseases, it builds up and invigorates the whole system, and makes one young again.

Maysville and Mason County Bible Society.

MAYSVILLE, Oct. 16, 1883. The American Bible Society is now engaged in the fourth general supply of bibles in the United States. This means that a Bible or New Testament shall be placed in every home, and as far as practicable, in the hands of every person who can read the holy scriptures.

Mason county has heretofore always done this work in her own borders, through the agency of our local society, and with funds furnished by the christian people of this county. Those who are destitute but are able to buy, and the number is greater than we are in the habit of estimating—must be supplied. To do this requires voluntary contributions from the friends of the cause.

Upon the recommendation of Dr. Savage, district Superintendent, Rev. Mr. Caywood has been appointed the colporteur and bible distributor for this county. He has entered upon this work and is expected to visit every house. He will not attempt to force God's holy word upon the unworthy, but is expected diligently to search for and supply all the destitute.

He will distribute only the scriptures without note or comment, as published by the American Bible Society. He will sell only at cost price.

We recommend him to the hospitality and christian co-operation of the good people of Mason county; we commend his cause to the contributions of all who desire the universal distribution of the holy scriptures, especially in our highly favored and wealthy county.

JAMES BARBOUR, President.

W. C. SADLER, Secretary.

Masonic Widows' and Orphans' Home.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Oct. 15, 1883.

Ed. Bulletin: Knowing the solicitude which will be felt by the friends of beneficiaries from Mason and adjoining counties, at the Masonic Widows' and Orphans' Home, at this place, in consequence of the prevalence of small-pox in the institution, I write this note to request you to say in your paper that there have been five cases—all girls. Three of them have died and the other two are getting well. There has been no new cases since the 8th, a week ago to-day. None of these were from our section of the State. It is thought improbable that there will be any other cases in the home in view of the fact that those attacked were immediately removed to the Eruptive Hospital, the fact that so great a time has elapsed since the last one to take it was attacked, and the further fact the home authorities are taking every precaution and are exerting themselves to the utmost to prevent the further progress of the disease. How the disease originated or whence it came to the home is an unsolved mystery. Another strange circumstance is that the children attacked were all successfully vaccinated (as it was believed) last spring. Yours truly, W. N. HOWE.

SHERMAN'S VIEW.

He Tells Why the Republicans
Lost Ohio.

Wool and Prohibition at the Bottom of the Trouble—Sherman's View of Prohibition—Prospects For the Presidential Election.

New York, Oct. 17.—Of the Ohio election, Senator Sherman says: "The Republicans were defeated because of the prohibition question and the law reducing the tariff on wool. The outlook was favorable until about three weeks before the election when the extraordinary efforts of the women and others interested in the prohibition issue alarmed a great many persons who would otherwise have voted the Republican ticket, and caused them to vote against it, and many Germans feared the loss of their property, while other voters refused to favor legislation of that kind."

"How much did the wool tariff reduction affect the result?"
"I think it lost the party at least 10,000 votes. There would have been still a greater loss from that cause if we had not succeeded in proving the insincerity and falsehoods of the Democrats in regard to the subject. The contest was not decided on national matters, but wholly on local issues."

"What will be the effect on the election of next year?"
"There is not the slightest doubt that Ohio will give a good majority for the Republican National ticket. It is a sure Republican State upon national issues."

"Will the Democrats repeal the Scott law?"
"They are in a quandary. In some respects it is probably a good thing that the Democrats have control of the Legislature. They will hardly dare to repeal the Scott law, and yet if they refuse to do so they will be in a bad situation with their supporters, but if they should repeal it they would be in a still worse position."

"How do you regard the outlook for electing a Republican President next year?"
"It is good. But we can not assume the responsibility in any State of passing prohibitory legislation. Personally, I do not care for spirituous liquors, and would be willing to see them swept away. But there are many Republicans who would not. A wide latitude must be permitted to people in such matters."

Will Be Hanged.

New York, Oct. 17.—The Governor has refused to interfere in the case of Hovey, convicted of the murder of his sister-in-law, and he will accordingly be hanged Friday morning next.

HALL'S

Vegetable Sicilian

HAIR RENEWER

was the first preparation perfectly adapted to cure

diseases of the scalp, and the first successful re-

storator of faded or gray hair to its natural color, growth, and youthful beauty. It has had many imitators, but none have so fully met all the requirements needed for the proper treatment of the hair and scalp. HALL'S HAIR RENEWER has steadily grown in favor, and spread its fame and usefulness to every quarter of the globe. Its unparalleled success can be attributed to but one cause: the entire fulfillment of its promises.

The proprietors have often been surprised at the receipt of orders from remote countries, where they had never made an effort for its introduction.

The use for a short time of HALL'S HAIR

RENEWER wonderfully improves the personal appearance. It cleanses the scalp from all impurities, cures all humors, fever, and dryness, and thus prevents baldness. It stimulates the weakened glands, and enables them to push forward a new and vigorous growth. The effects of this article are not transient, like those of alcoholic preparations, but remain a long time, which makes its use a matter of economy.
